

Recycling Bikes and Sewing Machines!

Collection at Bellport United Methodist Church
on Saturday, April 28
11:00am - 2:00pm

Returning Peace Corps Volunteers of Long Island, in partnership with the Bellport United Methodist Church is collecting used bikes and sewing machines on Saturday, April 28 (rain or shine) from 11:00am to 2:00pm outside in the parking field.

Any items collected will be refurbished by the international project, Pedals for Progress & Sewing Peace, and sent to developing communities overseas.

So take a look in your garages and bring those old bikes and sewing machines down to BUMC for recycling! It's for a great cause!
